

PARTICIPANT CODE OF CONDUCT

Element 11 strives to build community and produce events that promote our mission statement of igniting a culture of creativity and self-expression. We also promote the 10 Principles of Burning Man. Through the following code of conduct, we aim to promote a safe and fun environment for all participants.

At all events organized by Element 11, participants are responsible for their own behavior and resolving their own issues. Element 11 strongly suggests behaving in a manner that does not make other participants feel unsafe or threatened. Element 11 will not condone any behavior that endangers its ability to hold the annual regional burn event and other community events.

Participants may report any incident in which another participant is behaving in an abusive, intimidating, threatening, or unsafe manner. Physical hazards, such as unsafe art installations or fires, should be referred to Rangers or a Board of Directors member immediately.

Children under 18 years of age can attend the regional burn event only accompanied at all times by a parent, legal guardian, or other responsible party; any persons bringing a child to the event agrees on behalf of the child to the contractual terms of the ticket and acknowledges that they have made a choice that the child may be exposed to expressive activities and dress at the event. Refer to Minors Policy for more specifications.

Element 11 has a zero tolerance policy for unaccompanied children.. Both parents/guardians and children will be evicted from the event grounds should an unaccompanied child be found. This applies regardless whether the child is lost or missing.

Along with this Code of Conduct participants need to be aware of and comply with all Element 11's policies that are located on our website:

<http://www.element11.org/e11-events/regional-burn-utah/general-festival-faq/>.

Last Updated: 2.11.18